

GROUP ADDITIONAL LIFE INSURANCE

Act now to protect the ones you love

Do you have enough Life insurance to help take care of the people you love? Pinellas County Schools provides all benefit-eligible employees one times your annual salary of Life insurance that pays your loved ones a benefit if you pass away. But will that be enough?

Think about the people who share your life and all the expenses they'll face. By purchasing Additional Life insurance now, you can help take care of their needs — and protect their future.

During your special open enrollment, you may enroll in employee term Additional Life insurance up to a total of $250,000 and/or term Dependents Life insurance for your spouse, up to $30,000, without answering medical underwriting questions. After this special enrollment period, medical underwriting approval will be required for new or increased optional life insurance coverage.

Take steps now to help your family cover future expenses like:

Tuition

Daily Living Expenses

Child Care

Funeral Costs

Housing Costs

How much Life insurance do you need?
