ELEMENTARY CLINICIAN BIOGRAPHIES

Dr. James Guyer- Chorus

Dr. James W. Guyer is the Artistic Director of the Sarasota Young Voices. He serves as organist/choirmaster at St. Boniface Episcopal Church in Sarasota, Florida. Dr. Guyer earned his Doctor of Music degree (DM) in organ performance and literature at Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. His matriculation with IU professors Marilyn Keiser, Brent Gault and William Jon Gray in choral studies and children's choirs provided opportunities to work with the IU Children's Choir and the Royal School of Church Music. His love for children and youth choirs began during high school when he was the accompanist for the Irving Boys Choir, under the direction of Woody Schober. This passion led to the formation of a choir school at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church and School and the Siesta Youth Chorale, programs at his most recent churches. Dr. Guyer is an active performer as an organist in south Florida. Dr. Guyer cherishes a deep appreciation for music and an excitement to share this with his students and congregation. When not making music, Dr. Guyer enjoys spending time in beautiful "Old Florida" with his wife and four children.

He has presented original workshops for educators on the regional, state, and national levels. Additionally, he has conducted comprehensive World Drumming clinics at several institutions, including the University of South Florida, the University of Tampa, the University of Florida, Florida Southern College, Florida Atlantic University, and the Florida Music Educators Association Professional Development Conference (FMEA).
