Chung Park is the Director of Orchestras and String Music Education in the Music Department, School of Performing Arts at the University of Central Florida. Dr. Park is the artistic director and administrator for the UCF Symphony and Chamber Orchestras and Director of String Music Education. Orchestras Dr. Park has led have received wide critical acclaim. Dr. Park comes to the University of Central Florida most recently from Appalachian State University, where he was the Director of Orchestral Studies at the Hayes School of Music. He also led the String and Symphony Orchestras at the HSoM's Cannon Music Camp. Prior appointments include positions at the Idaho State-Civic Symphony, Idaho State University, Frost School of Music at the University of Miami, as well as the faculties of the Universities of Chicago, North Dakota and Indiana University- South Bend. Park also served as conductor of the Western Michigan University Chamber Orchestra and Opera Theater and music director of youth orchestras in South Bend, IN; Grand Forks, ND; Orlando, FL and Miami, FL. Dr. Park keeps a very active schedule as a guest conductor, presenter and clinician. He has recently led or will lead orchestras in Utah, Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina, North Dakota and throughout the state of Florida, including the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra. He is active as an adjudicator and strives to be a resource to area teachers, having led over seventy clinics in the schools during a little more than two years at UCF. Dr. Park was honored by the North Dakota String Teacher's Association with their Distinguished Service Award in 2008. He was also awarded the Pocatello Arts Council Community Service Award and named "Businessperson of the Year-Overachiever Under 40" by the Idaho State Journal and the Pocatello/Blackfoot Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Park loves to spend his free time with his family and even gets talked into playing board games on occasion. He also enjoys foraging for wild food, cooking, gardening organically, cycling, doing home renovations and reading.

Conductor - Sammy Alvarez

Sammy Alvarez earned his Bachelor of Music Education at the University of South Florida. During his studies, he had the privilege of studying under Jack Wilkins, Valerie Gillespie, Tom Brantley and Chuck Owen. Prior to joining Ben Hill Middle School, Mr. Alvarez served as the Director of Bands at both Memorial and Adams Middle School in Tampa, FL from 2011 to 2015. Under his direction, his bands have received superior ratings at the district level. During his tenure at Memorial Middle School, his wind ensemble received superior ratings at the Concert Music Performance Assessment for the first time in school history. In the summer of 2014, Mr. Alvarez was asked to be the clinician of the first ever USF Summer Band Camp. In 2015, Mr. Alvarez was one of five middle school directors chosen to write the middle school band curriculum for Hillsborough County. Mr. Alvarez currently serves at the Percussion Director at Gaither High School, consisting of over 40 percussionists. He has the privilege of being the direct music feeder to his older brother Luis Alvarez. Sammy Alvarez is an active member of the Florida Bandmasters Association. He currently resides in Land O' Lakes, FL with his wife Christina and son, Emanuel, with Ezra on the way.
