4. Principal Update: Testing calendar for May handed out. Mrs. Chichester made a folder containing information about Bright Futures for rising 9th graders. They need to reach out to their guidance counselors for pre-approval before beginning earning their hours. They are eligible to do this on May 30th. The packet provides the necessary information regarding the requirements for earning either Florida Academic Scholars (FAS) and/or Florida Medallion Scholars (FMS) including GPA, volunteer hours needed, ACT/SAT scores etc.

Mrs. Ray organizes a volunteer fair for rising 8th graders and rising 9th graders in May so that they can connect with local organizations who are looking for students who are will took take on our 13/14 year old students for earning their hours. Be mindful also that some programs also require students to earn 100 hours on top of the bright futures hours.

Our school hours should remain the same next year.

President nomination for SAC is Mrs. Bruce to remain in the position. Motion Mrs. Ray, second Mrs. Clark. All in favor, none opposed. Secretary nomination for SAC is Mrs. Clark to remain in the position. Motion Mrs. Bruce, second Mrs. Leonarduzzi. All in favor, none opposed.

This is the last meeting for the school year. New calendar and agendas will be sent out over the summer for the 25-26 school year.
