2. Approval of Minutes

Motion to approve the September minutes as written by Mrs. Alcuaz, second by Mrs. Leonarduzzi.

3. Presentations: Family and Community Liaison Review – Amira Ray

What does a Family and Community Liaison Do? Co-ordinates the following: Adult and High School volunteers, Business Partners, Community Involvement, Take Stock in Children program, Great American Teach-In, Caught Being Awesome Award, Newsletter Editor, Poster Printer, School Advisory Council

To highlight a few:

Take Stock in Children – scholarship program for low income students. Mrs. Ray works with and coordinates the students and volunteers every year. Coordinates recruiting volunteers and matches them with students as well as recruiting guest presents to present topics and have discussions with the group.

Newsletter Editor: works with administration and staff to send out the monthly newsletter to families and the community.

Caught Being Awesome Award: Works with staff to recognize students who go above and beyond within our school.

Great American Teach-In: Coordinates community members coming into the school to present their careers or hobbies to students. Provides an opportunity for students to see a wide variety of career options, how to get into the career or involved in the community, the responsibilities of the career field etc. This year we had 68 speakers present to 22 teachers throughout the day, with 117 hours logged.
