Kyla Bailey (Chorus) has been an Elementary Music Teacher in Hillsborough County since 2008 and currently teaches at Turner Barrels K8 School in Tampa. Ms. Bailey graduated from the University of Central Arkansas in 2008 with a degree in Music Education. She is also very active in the county, serving on the Hillsborough County Elementary Music Educators Council for the past seven years and frequently presents professional development courses for her elementary music colleagues. She has conducted as part of the Hillsborough County Fine Arts Festival in 2011, 2013, and 2018. This past year, Ms. Bailey was invited to conduct the All County Choruses for Manatee and Pasco counties. In addition, Ms. Bailey has been the conductor of Lumina Aurora and Lumina Prima with Lumina Youth Choruses in Tampa since 2014. Under her direction, Lumina Aurora has performed for many events in the Tampa Bay area, most recently appearing on stage at Amalie Arena with Mr. Barry Manilow last December. Ms. Bailey is also an accomplished soprano, having performed as a guest soloist with the Tampa Bay Symphonic Wind for the last three seasons.

Steven Ross (Orff) was born and raised in north east England. He achieved a music degree from Leeds College of Music playing saxophone as his main instrument. His professional career started out on cruise lines playing in the theatre orchestra. He then transitioned back to land to become a general education teacher to elementary students in a small English school. He moved to the USA in 2007 to combine his love of music and education to become a Music Teacher. He has taught in seven Pinellas County Schools in the past thirteen years. He now proudly works at Brooker Creek Elementary in Tarpon Springs.

Elizabeth Rook (Drumming) is a product of Pinellas County Schools, a National Board Certified Teacher and received her Bachelor of Music Education Degree from the USF. She has taught at Perkins Elementary School, Center for the Arts for twenty-six years. Elizabeth has achieved Level III Orff Schulwerk Certification from Eastman and Level II World Drumming. She is a founding member & past president of the Greater Tampa Bay Area Orff Chapter, has served on the PCMEA Board and has directed the All County Honors Chorus, Honors World Drumming & Honors Orff Ensembles. She has also served as the Elementary All County Coordinator. Mrs. Rook has been honored as the Elementary Music Educator of the Year, Perkins’ Teacher of the Year and a finalist for Pinellas County Teacher of the Year. This is her thirty-first year of teaching.
